Internationality as a Core Value

→ about 600 international emlployees

→ research fellows

→ self-financed researchers

→ comprehensive Network of Care for researchers at MLU

→ Internationalisation Strategy

Internationalisation Strategy

"MLU stands for cosmopolitanism, dialogue, tolerance and diversity, and assumes responsibility in a globalised knowledge society.

Internationality has been an integral part of MLU's identity for centuries and shapes research, study, teaching and administration."

Internationalisation Strategy

→ internationalisation is an integral, cross-cutting task that spans all areas of the university

→ promoting the development of a bilingual campus to advance interaction between international and local stakeholders

→ attracting international students and researchers to MLU and encouraging them to settle in the long term by creating targeted opportunities in the area

→ supporting international researchers in their daily challenges before, during and after arriving in Halle
